KING PHILIP'S WAR:

" Most Americans learn about the Mayflower and the Pilgrims, but they know nothing about what happened after the First Thanksgiving. As far as most history curriculums are concerned, the next event of any importance is the American Revolution, 150 years later. Left out of this version of events is the fate of the Indians. The answer is King Philip's War, a conflict that began in 1675 when Massasoit's son Philip decided to go to war. Fourteen months later, more than 5,000 people (in a total population of only 70,000) were dead, more than three-quarters of them Indians. Those of Philip's followers who were not killed were shipped to the Caribbean as slaves. On a per capita basis, more died in the King Philip's War than in the American Civil War and it is a conflict that most Americans know nothing about."

The preceding quote is by Nathaniel Philbrick talking about his book, Mayflower. And yes, the Hadleys were involved in that bloody 14-month war. One segment of our July 17th, 2010 Reunion will look at the Hadleys' involvement in the King Philip War.

As a side note, you may find it of interest to know that some of the American Indians from the Plymouth, MA area were shipped to the Caribbean after the King Philip War. Some Indians were not accepted in the Caribbean and were subsequently transported as slaves to Ghana in West Africa.

HADLEY CEMETERIES UPDATE:

Last month's Newsletter listed some Hadley cemeteries. One of those cemeteries was the Hadley cemetery in Hadleyville, Nova Scotia. We suspect many may not have heard about the very significant contributions the Hadleys made in Guysborough County, Nova Scotia which all started with the arrival from Gloucester, MA of Capt. Joseph (Headley) Hadley about 1759. One of our Hadley members, Ardella MacPhee, who lives in Nova Scotia has informed us of the burial of Hadleys in some of the other cemeteries in Guysborough County, Nova Scotia. Some of these cemeteries are: "Hadleyville United Church Cemetery; Holy Trinity Anglican Church Cemetery, Hadleyville; Boylston United Church Cemetery; Christ Church Anglican Cemetery, Guysborough (where Joseph Hadley's second wife is buried); Evergreen Cemetery, Guysborough, NS; Old Methodist Cemetery, Guysborough, NS; St Ann's Catholic Cemetery, Guysborough, NS; Manchester Cemetery, Guysborough County, NS; and St Andrew's Anglican Cemetery, Mulgrave, NS. There is no doubt others Hadleys are scattered all over Nova Scotia and in fact all of Canada."

Note: In a future Newsletter we plan on featuring the Nova Scotia Hadleys of yester-year.

AN ENGLISH HADLEY?

There were probably a number of George Hadleys born in England the early part of the 17th century. (George was a common name and the surname of Hadley can be found in many English records.) Our challenge is to find the George Hadley, our patriot, who came to “The New World” and settled in the coastal region of Massachusetts.

Barbara (Hadley) Edge, who lives in Wisconsin and is an aggressive genealogical detective, has found the following data that POSSIBLY could turn out to be our George. Much research needs to be done in an attempt to prove her George and our George to be the same person; click on the link below:

England & Wales Christening Records 1530-1906

UK Parish Records

Name: George Hadley

Father: Christopher Hadley

Birth: abt 1601

Baptism: 31 Dec 1601 - Lichfield, Staffordshire,
England

Other: 1601

The record indicates this George had an older sister, Marie, born abt. 1600 who was Baptized 22 Oct 1600. He also had a younger brother, Rychard Hadley, born abt. 1603 and Baptized 22 Aug 1603.

Stay tuned as we try and make a connection!!!
