Hadley People We Knew:

With this month's Hadley Newsletter we are instituting a new feature; a brief biographical sketch written by you for any member of your family you think other would be interested in meeting. This will be your opportunity to tell a story about someone you knew or have heard about. Make this brief one or two page story as colorful as you wish. We start off this feature with the Hadley sisters; Lucy, Lizzie and Mary See attachment: Hadley People We Knew.

A Piece of Canadian History about John Hadley:

Liz Maize, Peterborough, Ontario, Canada, Email: elizabethmaize@cogeco.ca is a descendent from Capt. Joseph Hadley (1724-1801). About 1759 Joseph moved to Nova Scotia, Canada from Gloucester, MA. Liz shares with us an interesting story that includes an adventure of John Hadley. In 1914 John Hadley was part of the crew of the Karluk, a wooden hulled exploration ship that was crushed by ice and sank in the Arctic Ocean. John survived the ordeal and the Jan/Feb issue of the Canadian Geographic http://www.canadiangeographic.ca/magazine/jf13/first_canadian_arctic_expedition.asp. has an interesting story to tell. In addition The Canadian Museum of Civilization <http://www.civilization.ca/cmhc/exhibitions/hist/cae/peo613e.shtml> had a biographical profile of John Hadley. Thank you, Liz, for sharing your research with us.

Two Birth Certificates:

Did you know, in some cases, the same person could have two different birth certificates listing two different biological parents? Please see the following attachment: Two Different Birth Certificates
